DEDICATION TO CINDI DOHERTY

The Class Of 99-2000 proudly co-dedicates the 2000 yearbook to Cindi Doherty, Director of Career Planning and Placement.

Cindi, you are a vital part of Fisher College that we have come to love. You start at Day One and help us find and make the best choices, even when there don't seem to be any. Then you continue to be there as long as we need you. We can always count on you to lend an ear and a hand in time of need. All the long hours, dedication, and little things you do for us have not gone unnoticed!

Thank you, Cindi, for all of your support. You have made a positive difference in all the students' lives you have touched.

Congratulations!
The 2000 Student Body

DEDICATION TO SEAN DOYLE

The Class of 99-2000 proudly co-dedicates the 2000 yearbook to Mr. Sean Doyle, Mathematics Instructor.

Mr. Doyle, you are a key part of mathematics equation. This is not everyone's favorite subject, but your warm smile, and encouraging words have helped tremendously. We appreciate the extra time you spend with us to help us understand this difficult subject.

Thank you, Mr. Doyle, for all your support and friendship, both in and outside of class. You have influenced so many of us.

Congratulations!

The 2000 Student Body

PRESIDENT FISHER'S MESSAGE

As we stand on the threshold to a new millennium, we should enter with a renewed optimism with dreams of what can be. We can and must strive to address challenges and reach new heights in every area of human endeavor. However, we must realize that the new millennium rests firmly on the last few millenniums of human history and progress.

In the same way, our graduates enter a new period of their lives for which their College experiences and everything prior to that has prepared them. It has been a tremendous experience for myself personally and the College to participate together in this educational process. I hope that you will think back on the many memories we have had such as re-introducing men into the College, classes in Boston townhouses, Euroweek, and more. Wherever you are in the future, I hope you are always re-invigorated by the enthusiasm and spirit you felt at this college. Good luck always.
Sincerely,

Christian C. Fisher

MOVING-IN DAY

Rick greets a newcomer.

Welcome to Fisher College!

RESIDENT LIFE STAFF TRUST/EXERCISES

A week before classs started, the RA's and RD's traveled to North Andover with members of the campus police to take a trust workshop at a lower ropes course.

The participants divided into groups which had to work together to accomplish tasks that emphasized teamwork.

All the games required quick problem-solving skills and cooperation. The Wall required strength and courage as well. It was a high wooden wall that the teammates had to help each other to surmount in a designated time. Another game, the Spider Web, was a net-like obstacle course with a few holes for the players to squeeze through, some carrying others.

The goal of the day-long retreat was to strengthen the bonds between the Fisher Dorm Staff. According to those who attended, it was a valuable and satisfying experience.

STUDENT LIFE

CLUB FAIR '99

The Club Fair was held in mid-September to give students the opportunity to join various school organizations. Included on the list are: Yearbook staff, Women's Issues Club, Intercultural Club, Student Government, Indoor Soccer, Student Activities Committee, and more. Held in the mall, the fair was a good occasion to mingle and join in school life.

AT THE BEAUTY FAIR

The Beauty Fair was held in late September. Dellaria Salon, Mary Kay Cosmetics, Giorgio Milan, and the Better Half Health Club all sent representatives who manned demonstration booths. Students could receive haircuts, make-overs, and chiropractic spinal alignments analyses. It was both a fun and informative evening for all.

THIRD-YEAR STUDENTS' LUNCHEON

The third-year students had a get-acquainted luncheon on a sunny day in early September up in the Fashion Center. President Fisher, Dr. Tanner, Mrs. Myers, and Dr. Louis Cohen made welcoming remarks. The food and fellowship were great and everyone was then set for a productive, ground-breaking year.

Blizzard of Bucks is an audience-participation game that involves 4 or 5 people at a time. The games include balancing plates and bowls in a tall tower, eating a bubble gum pie and trying to blow bubbles, and stuffing one's mouth with marshmallows while wearing bunny ears. There is also a chance to enter the Incredible Money Machine. Those watching from the safety of their seats in the Auditorium laughed uproariously as the contestants performed on stage.

FASHION SHOW 1999

Celebrating a Century was the theme of the Fashion Merchandising Program's annual theatrical event. Celebrating milestones of fitness, emancipation, communication, and more, the show was a feast for the eyes and provided food for thought. The clothing modeled included originals by Designers Eddie Kent and Diem Truong and also outfits from the Garment District, Liz Claiborne, Benetton, Urban Outfitters, the Gap, and other chic stores. Senior Fashion majors directed the eleven fast-paced scenes. Each scene was timed to contemporary music. Ms. Teresa Howe, Program Director, oversaw the production and served as narrator. The show was a great success!

INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL

Ms. Nancy Pithis' students in Principles of Meeting Management presented a wonderful and lively International Festival in November. Entitled Fisher's Fall Fiesta, the program included food and beverage samples, culture and games, and costumes of three regions of the world: the Orient, the Caribbean, and a fall harvest in the United States. The students worked really hard to create participatory environments fun for the whole college community to enjoy.
